

Center for Transformative Research in Metabolism (TRiM), Community Advisory Panel: “Strategies for Successful Aging, A Cross-Cultural Community Perspective”

Wednesday, February 12, 2025 | 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.

Location: 1000 University Ave. Room 158 (aka Old University Park School)

Summary: Jordan “Angun” Lewis, a professional gerontologist and community psychologist, has worked with Alaska Native and American Indian communities and developed a model for Alaska Native successful aging. Jordan’s research has important implications for generativity, well-being and aging, including those with dementia, their caregivers, family, and community members. Light refreshments provided.

Jordan “Angun” Lewis, PhD

Director of Research
Center for One Health
College of Indigenous Studies,
UAF

Who’s Invited: Community members, older adults, family caregivers, health care providers, and senior service providers who are interested in aging and well-being.

SPONSORED BY:

The Center for Transformative Research in Metabolism (TRiM), UAF
Light refreshments are to be provided.

RSVP and more information:

Email Denise Daniello, dldaniello@alaska.edu.

P.O. Box 75700 · Fairbanks, Alaska 99775-7000 · (907) 474-6583 / (907) 474-7190 · kdrew@Alaska.edu

UAF is an AA/EO employer and educational institution and prohibits illegal discrimination against any individual:
www.alaska.edu/nondiscrimination/.

